

The other side final

Novatians 'the beast' vs. Aabbickaners.

By: William Everett Barrett

Learned Elders of the world of existence:

Our existence is sworn across from one end to another. From wherever direction that may be as the size differential of our territory is truly unknown towards even the greatest of minds as only our wings can go so fast and so high. Our original point of origin is also unknown. It could be there in front of us in the book in scripture in law and in culture, but still would not be truly known as there's no true evidence for it to be backed up especially by anyone for this is a true democracy to say at least.

Aabbic's ways may be unhinge but what is the alternative to become the light. He is instinct. He is the light bearer he needs to hold us back and we need to do whatever we can to do what he says in this regard. Therefore, I say yes, you must have a king. We must have a ruler. We must have a dictator. We must do anything and everything that he says even if it's wrong. Even if it takes us back or even if it holds us back because any further action any further progress will turn us into nothing as our light dissipates in the dark.

Because each world was made up for each one of us.

Aabbbic:

First before I begin, thank you for giving me the forum to make my final address to the congress of the United States of America. As you are now powerless. And any further action is now noid and void by the President.

As my purpose goes beyond the mighty American dollar. As Washington belongs to Washington, Lincoln belongs to Lincoln, Roosevelt belongs to Roosevelt, Kennedy belongs to Kennedy, Hamilton belongs to Hamilton, Jackson belongs to Jackson, Grant belongs to Grant and Franklin belongs to Franklin.

Only I grow my money on trees to avoid this concern. Because my work as a warrior in the garden is a monthly pursuit.

Do not think I'm here to abolish the Constitution or any of the past presidents but I am here to fulfill them.

The penny is the smallest domination and cannot be reckoned with. It cannot even be broken in half.

Before Abraham Lincoln I am.

I am the inverse of Washington. You may not have appointed me but I have appointed you.

I only say yes or no. I will not take any oath to hold any title. I swear by no oaths not to the sun, not to the moon, nor to the stars. Not even to the White House.

Before you think about other people's wrong doings, think about yours first.

Love me more than your children. Love me more than your loved ones. let me into your homes as one of your own as I am who I am.

Only I can go over the line as I am the line.

Worry not about money, just paper in disguise, just metal giving value. It is a circle that pretends to be the X.

The poor who give what little they have give more than any rich man who have all the wealth and the world.

Forget evil, only think of good. And only good things will come.

Lessons are only learned from adversity not from a University.

The flag may have 13 stripes but it has 50 stars.

I am the end.

I am Omega.

Learned Elders of the world of existence wouldn't accept such a truth. The truth that you have told us, the truth that I believed in our life. They deny Aabbbic's viewpoint they rejected it and for what to still stay entangled in their W.E.B. of lies Lucifer they called Aabbbic what you ask for. It is impossible. It cannot be done nor will ever be done. As instinct will always prevail.

Only God would know. That's what has kept us going.

Doeloen, the closest one to dank dark Halls is of best of us. He would know what to say to you sir.

Doeloen: Tell me what would the Lord say in times like this if you can. Is this our final struggle? Or Just one of the many ultimate struggles of man?

Only the Lord is the beginning. And the end you have just been caught in between. You are the light of the world. The light bearer. but, that light dissipates. Aabbbic you're the light of this world as what you are on the other side in your world has only brought the darkest unlike any other. You're the Yah and and weh.

Aabbbic: I had two little left to give and that world I was too weak I had to go.

Doeloen: it was made for you. You threw it away like it was nothing. There are consequences and they still exist here!

Aabbic: That's why I am here. It wasn't good enough. It made me go through the pain. So much pain. Too much pain. And now I hope it's gone.

Doeloen: nothing is ever truly gone. You Just got to move on. You're here now. That's what matters. From one side to the other. Stop this war of silence so that your voice can be heard. We're all here to listen.
